[CHAPTER 210]

AN ACT

To extend through December 31, 1945, the termination date under the Renegotiation Act.

June 30, 1945

[H. R. 3395]

[Public Law 104]

Renegotiation Act, amendment.
58 Stat. 246.
50 U. S. C., Supp.
IV, app. § 1191 (h).

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That subsection (h) of the Renegotiation Act (relating to the termination date) is amended to read as follows:

"(h) This section shall apply only with respect to profits derived from contracts with the Departments and subcontracts which are determined under regulations prescribed by the Board to be reasonably allocable to performance prior to the close of the termination date. Notwithstanding the method of accounting employed by the contractor in keeping his books, profits determined to be so allocable shall be considered as having been received or accrued not later than the termination date. For the purposes of this subsection, the term 'termination date' means whichever of the following dates first occurs—

"(1) December 31, 1945; or

"(2) the date proclaimed by the President as the date of the termination of hostilities in the present war; or

"(3) the date specified in a concurrent resolution of the two Houses of Congress as the date of the termination of hostilities in the present war."

"Termination
date."
